Guernsey Sea Cadets	Treasurer, Secretary	The Guernsey Sea Cadets is constituted as an independent Guernsey charity, but operates in very much in the same way as sea cadet units in the UK. We currently have an urgent need for a Treasurer and a Secretary, as well as people with company secretarial / administration type experience. Potential candidates would need to come and visit us at the Unit. There would then be interviews and a certain amount of paperwork to complete before appointments could be confirmed. The Sea Cadets operate high standards of corporate governance and there is a lot of interaction with Area and Head Office. These roles therefore offer great experience of a fairly formal corporate governance / board environment, but in the context of supporting a really worthwhile, well established local charity doing invaluable work with and for young people. Clearly an interest in nautical matters and youth work would be helpful, although these roles are for administration and support rather than direct instructing of cadets. Please contact Matt Bourgaize to discuss these roles further ouc@ts-sarnia.org
Living Streets	Social Media	Living Streets is seeking volunteers to assist with social media. Please contact patwisher@cwgsy.net

Three main avenues for volunteering

Volunteer.gg

Volunteer.gg has been created for those who are keen to volunteer some of their time to a charity or charities in Guernsey and is administered by the Association of Guernsey Charities. Volunteer.gg works to establish a link between charities or voluntary groups who require assistance, and potential volunteers. The site lists many opportunities for volunteering, from events to longer term positions.

An opportunity to use your professional skills and experience Guernsey Community Foundation –

The Foundation runs a Volunteer Matching Programme which sources and mobilises volunteers with professional skills in business planning and strategy, advice on governance issues, finances and audit, marketing and PR, design, IT and places them within voluntary organisations that need their specific expertise. Visit www.foundation.gg for more information on volunteering your skills through this scheme or contact Joni Nettleship on joni@foundation.gg or call 259523.

Go direct! Information on making contact with charities is available on the Association of Guernsey Charities www.charity.org.gg

The AGC is a members' organisation supporting local charities. If you're not quite sure what you're looking for but are passionate about a particular charity or cause, the Association of Guernsey Charities' website – www.charity.org.gg – shares the contact details of all of its members. Details are on the website.
