CELEBRATING PEOPLE who make a difference

31 OCTOBER 2017

Paul Farmer CBE

Guest Speaker

Paul is Chief Executive of Mind, the leading mental health charity working in England. He is also Chair of the Association of Chief Executives of Voluntary Organisations (ACEVO), the leading voice of the UK's charity and social enterprise sector. Paul is also a trustee at Lloyds Bank Foundation which invests in charities supporting people to break out of disadvantage at critical points in their lives.

Paul was Chair of the NHS England Mental Health Taskforce which brought together health and care leaders and experts in the field, including people using services, to lead a programme of work to create the current mental health Five Year Forward View for the NHS in England.

Rob Moore

MC

Rob is one of Guernsey's best known broadcasters and journalists, covering the Bailiwick's main stories and events as ITV News Guernsey Editor. Rob will be linking live to the ITV Channel 6pm news to showcase the award winners.

GUERNSEY COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

The Guernsey Community Foundation exists to promote effective philanthropy: the well-directed giving of money, time and ideas within the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

The Foundation's vision is of a vibrant and caring community in which a strong and committed charitable sector works effectively with government and business. To achieve this, it runs a grant-giving programme, gives support and advice to charities, and acts as critical friend to government.
